

Cláudia Schwartz

The expertise and real-life insights you will gain from Cláudia Schwartz come from her comprehensive experiences including 18 years in HR leadership roles at companies with up to 10,000 employees; consulting with over 400 client companies, from start-ups to Fortune 500, for 20 years; directing the UCSD HR Leadership Program; teaching applied employment law for 26 years; being an expert witness in employment litigation; investigator licensed by the state of California with the highest workplace investigation credential; EEOC consent decree monitor; provider of training on respect in the workplace and prevention of bullying, harassment, discrimination and retaliation; strategic planning facilitator; designer of analytics dashboards; coach for executives and HR professionals; member of a VC firm; board Vice Chair of a $110 million organization; business founder and President.