

Matt Stamper

As both a Certified Information Systems Auditor (CISA) and a Certified Information Privacy Professional (CIPP-US) with public and early-stage company experience, Matt Stamper brings a broad, multi-disciplinary understanding to cybersecurity best practices to his clients. His diverse domain knowledge spans the IT service side, risk management and new product and service sales and management.

Matt is a frequent Accounting Day speaker and his sessions are always well received.