

Nancy Rix

Nancy leads the Dickerson Rix team in the area of audit and assurance with 30 years of public and private experience. In 2002 she and Lou Anna Dickerson partnered to create Dickerson Rix and Co. Nancy has experience leading audits of nonprofit and commercial enterprises in a wide variety of industries as well as municipalities, labor unions, hospitals, and HUD assisted housing agencies. She serves on the Audit Committees of a number of local nonprofit organizations and is part of the San Diego leadership of the California Society of CPA's and serves on its state Accounting Principles and Auditing Standards subcommittee. Nancy also serves on the Advisory Board of the California State University at San Marcos School of Business, where she also teaches.